

Junior League of Columbia's Junior Volunteers

Registration Form

The Junior League of Columbia's Junior Volunteers program promotes voluntarism among youth in the community. The goal of Junior Volunteers is to teach young people the importance of volunteering in their community and to better the lives of others as well as themselves. Junior Volunteers is a program created for girls in grades 7th to 12th who are interested in making a difference around Columbia.

The registration fee to join Junior Volunteers is $20 per person. This fee will help cover the cost of the training materials and a Junior Volunteer t-shirt. Social activities and service projects will take place throughout the school year. A finalized calendar will be provided at the beginning of the program. Once you register, you will receive more information via email.

If you have any questions, contact the Junior Volunteers Chair Bridgette Suber: juniervolunteers@jlcolumbia.org.
